

Hakimah Sallehuddin

Consultant Geriatrician
University Putra Malaysia (UPM)
Malaysia

Meet Dr. Hakimah Mohammad Sallehuddin, a medical professional specializing in Geriatric Medicine from University Putra Malaysia (UPM). She earned her Medical Bachelor and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) degree from Jordan University of Science and Technology in 2007. Later in 2014, she was awarded Membership of Royal Colleges of Physicians (MRCP) by the United Kingdom to practice as an Internal Medicine Specialist. Dr. Sallehuddin completed her subspecialty training in Geriatric Medicine with clinical experiences in both Malaysia and the United Kingdom in 2020. Currently, she is a Doctoral Fellow in the Malaysian Research Institute on Ageing, leading a project on Post-Stroke Bone Loss among Older Adults. Additionally, she serves as the Head of Geriatric Unit UPM Teaching Hospital and coordinates the Healthcare of Elderly Course for Undergraduate Medical Program.