

Cheah Wee Kooi

Consultant Geriatrician
Taiping Hospital
Malaysia

Dr. Cheah is an experienced physician in internal medicine and geriatrics. He heads the Medical Department and Clinical Research Centre at Taiping Hospital, coordinates Parkinson's disease service, and provides visiting consultations to nearby hospitals. He holds various state and national level positions and is an active member of patient support groups. Dr Cheah is passionate about teaching and has published scientific research nationally and internationally.