

Ho Bee Kiau

Consultant Family Medicine Specialist
Bandar Botanic Health Center
Malaysia

Dr. Ho Bee Kiau is currently a Consultant Family Medicine Specialist (FMS) in Bandar Botanic Health Center, Klang, Selangor. She has been appointed as the Head of FMS Selangor since 4 th August 2022. She attained her Medical degree from UMMC in 1993. Subsequently, she attained her Master in Family Medicine (UMMC) in 2000. In 2003/2004, she underwent a subspeciality training in Community Geriatric in Monash University, Australia. She has been actively involved in the supervision of the postgraduate Family Medicine trainees from UKM, UMMC and FRACGP. She is also appointed as supervisor for the credentialing process for the National Specialist Registry. She has published several original research articles, mostly in community geriatrics, infectious disease and non-communicable disease in both local and international journals. She has also presented numerous scientific papers at local and international conferences. She is also involved in the development of the various primary care geriatrics guidelines for the Ministry of Health Malaysia.