

Gordon Pang

Consultant Geriatrician
Hospital Queen Elizabeth
Malaysia

In 2009, Dr Gordon completed his Undergraduate MBBS at IMU, followed by obtaining the specialist qualification MRCP (UK) in 2016. He completed fellowship training in geriatric medicine in 2021. Currently, he serve as the head of the geriatric unit in the department of medicine at Hospital Queen Elizabeth. Dr Gordon is also a certified trainer for the Alzheimer's Disease Foundation Malaysia. Additionally, he was involved in creating the geriatric Covid ward and orthogeriatric service in KKM hospital. His research in the field of Geriatric Medicine has been recognized through publications and presentations of academic posters and oral presentations at local and international conferences. His areas of expertise include falls, orthogeriatrics, dementia, and Covid-19 in the elderly.