

Renuka Visvanathan

Professor of Geriatric Medicine at University of Adelaide

Head of Unit of the Aged & Extended Care Services (Geriatric Medicine) at Queen Elizabeth Hospital Australia

Professor Renuka Visvanathan is a Malaysian from Alor Star. She is a medical graduate of the University of Adelaide and has been living in Australia since 1991. She is currently Professor of Geriatric Medicine at the University of Adelaide and has been the Head of Unit of the Aged and Extended Care Services (Geriatric Medicine) at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Central Adelaide Local Health Network since 2005. In 2022, she was recognised as one of the inaugural Healthy Ageing 50 as part of the United Nation's Healthy Ageing Decade, recognised as one of 50 leaders transforming the world to be a better place to grow older.