

Anupama Chowdhury

Consultant Geriatrician

Co-course Director, Clinical Skills Foundation Course

Duke NUS Medical School

Singapore

Dr. Anupama graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2002 and pursued further education in Geriatric Medicine. She completed a fellowship in Dementia and Cognitive Disorders at the University of British Columbia in 2014. An educator, she teaches medical students, junior doctors, and senior residents and conduct research in dementia, geriatric oncology, and medical education.