

Richard Lim

Senior Consultant Palliative Physician
Hospital Selayang
Malaysia

Dr. Richard Lim is responsible for overseeing the training programs in the palliative medicine subspecialty for doctors, nurses, and allied health professionals. He has a keen interest in cancer pain management, clinical ethics, end-of-life care, communication, and spiritual care. Dr. Lim resides in Kuala Lumpur with his wife and two children. He has a deep love for nature and enjoys spending time exploring the outdoors. He is especially fond of bird-watching and hopes to pursue his passion for ornithology after he retires.
