

Raja Ezman

Consultant Cardiologist & Clinical Lecturer
Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM).
Malaysia

Dr Raja Ezman is currently a consultant cardiologist and clinical lecturer in Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM). He graduated from University of Manchester with a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery in 2013 and received his MRCP (UK) in 2016. He received his European Exam in Core Cardiology certification in 2021 and Heart Failure certification from the Heart Failure Association, European Society of Cardiology in 2021. He completed his Advanced Heart Failure fellowship in Institut Jantung Negara in 2022, under the mentorship of Dato Dr Azmee Mohd Ghazi. He has received various grants and is currently a member of various international clinical trials. He has also published various articles in peer-reviewed international journals, latest publications being “A Malaysian Expert Consensus on the Use of High-sensitivity Cardiac Troponin in Emergency Department” and “Acute Decompensated Heart Failure with Preserved Ejection Fraction: Do the Asian Phenotypes Fit?” in 2022 and 2023 respectively.