Consultant Palliative Medicine
Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM)
Malaysia

Senior Lecturer, Dr. Diana Katiman, works at the Faculty of Medicine in Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) Sungai Buloh. Additionally, she heads the Palliative and Supportive Care Unit at the Hospital Al-Sultan Abdullah UiTM Puncak Alam. Dr. Katiman is an advocate for the inclusion of spiritual care as a vital part of holistic patient care. She is leading the way in creating a spiritual care training program for healthcare providers in partnership with the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE) and the George Washington Institute for Spirituality and Health. Dr. Katiman believes that caring for the carers is an extension of holistic patient care, and she regularly writes and speaks on the topic.
